

REMARKS

In a subsequent interview with Examiner Anwah relating to the claims that were determined to be present in Serial No. 11/055,846, the Examiner opined, as he did in the Examiner Interview of January 19, 2007, that the language "under the control of the message originator as to when the message is sent to a message center" was unnecessary. It was with this understanding that the claims in the present case have eliminated this language.

Respectfully submitted,
